Nordic Immigration in the Pacific Northwest from Then to Now— Technology, Innovation, and Migration

March 16. – 18. 2016

Nordic Heritage Museum, Seattle

In March 2016, the Nordic Heritage Museum in Seattle will host a conference devoted to the topic of Immigration in the Pacific Northwest. With speakers from a variety of backgrounds and disciplines, the conference will be a collaboration between the Nordic Heritage Museum and several museums, archives, and academic institutions throughout the Nordic Region. Watch for more information, and a call for abstracts, in August 2015.

The Planning Committee includes representatives from Norwegian Migration Museum, Swedish Migration Center, Danish Immigration Museum, Odense City Museums, Bergen Maritime Museum, and Nordic Heritage Museum.
